Topic: Overview of the Biblical Feasts

This lesson provides an overview of the seven major feasts outlined in the Old Testament, highlighting their significance both in the historical context of Israel and their theological implications in Christianity. The feasts were instituted by God as a means for Israel to remember His deliverance, celebrate His provision, and anticipate the coming of the Messiah. Understanding these feasts deepens our appreciation of God's covenant with His people and enriches our spiritual lives today.

Scriptures: Leviticus 23:1-44, Exodus 12:1-14, Deuteronomy 16:1-17 and Hebrews 10:1-4

Questions:
